TO ENTERTAIN WOMAN'S CLUB

Literary Department Hostess on Dec. 10.

Miss Adelaide Fries and Mr. R. D. W. Connor to Make Addresses—The Program One of Interest—Civic Department Agitating For More Sanitary Conditions Around Market House—Club Meets Saturday.

Busy days these! Thanksgiving just over, early Christmas shopping, innumerable weddings and social functions of every description crowding fast upon the heels of each other. And yet members of the Woman's Club are finding time to see to it that department meetings are well attended and that interest in club work is unabated.

The Literature Department being first on the list for reciprocity day, will entertain the general club on the second Saturday of December—its regular meeting day, falling this time on the 10th of the month, with a highly entertaining literary and musical program, after which there will be an informal reception with the department members as hostess. The exercises will be held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms from 3 to 6 p. m. and it is planned to make the occasion one to be always pleasantly remembered. The department congratulates itself on the prospect of having as its guests that day Miss Adelaide L. Fries, of Winston-Salem, chairman literature department State Federation, and Mr. R. D. W. Connor, secretary North Carolina Historical Commission, letters having been received from both accepting an invitation to be present. Miss Fries will have something worth telling about the state work, and Mr. Connor will give one of his characteristic interesting and instructive talks on North Carolina history, provided the women on the program allow him an opportunity. It takes a brave man to face, alone and unprotected, two hundred modern club women, each with a message to deliver to a waiting and expectant world; but Mr. Connor has been weighed in the balance and not found wanting. He feels equal to the occasion and promises to be on hand.

And in the midst of these pleasurable anticipations the Civic Department, with its more arduous but patriotic self-imposed task, keeps pounding away in its determined fight for cleaner streets, more sanitary buildings, and attractive homes. Nor does its work end there. Rather, it is simply the beginning. Pure food products, sold in clean stores and clean meat stalls is the demand of these advance agents of scientific living and healthy bodies.

Speaking of pure food and clean meat stalls, this writer read with interest an article which appeared recently in the Daily Record, commenting on the improvements made in the cattle pens and slaughter houses since the appointment of a meat inspector for Greensboro, and stating that our city market was in a perfectly sanitary condition.

The department is glad to learn of these improvements and is pleased always to give credit where credit is due. This writer, however, cannot accept as a fact the conclusion that the city market is in a perfectly sanitary condition. For instance, she is told by one of the market men that, at this season of the year, many of the meats offered for sale are exposed day and night until disposed of—are never put away and never covered. The floor is swept at any and all times to suit the convenience of the occupants of the stalls, and the germ laden dust from the market house floor—and we all know what that is—flies where it listeth and finds easy and convenient lodgement on the soft, moist surfaces of the newly inspected meats spread ready to receive it.

Columns could be written on this subject alone, but is it necessary? Is not a "hint to the wise" sufficient? Cannot every body see that it is useless to have meats inspected at a slaughter house only to be taken to a public market, spread out and left to catch all the dust and dirt that naturally accumulates in such a place? Let us have an ordinance requiring market men to cover their meats—certainly while the floor is being swept—either under glass or clean white cloths. If we have a meat inspector to insure us wholesome meats, make his work effective by keeping it wholesome after it has passed through his hands.

The regular monthly meeting of the general club will be held [illegible] Saturday morning, December 3[illegible] o'clock, at the usual place—[illegible]oom of the Carnegie library.

TAFT T[illegible] TO INDIAN CLAIMS AID

Plea Was That Letter From Him Would Swing Red Vote to Republicans.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—How President Taft last spring was readily trapped into lending his aid to the schemes of Indian claims lawyers and lobbyists in Washington, on the plea that an expression from him on certain pending Indian matters would insure a big Indian vote for the Republican ticket in Oklahoma this fall, was brought out in a sensational way today before the special committee of the House, which is investigating the subject of contracts with Oklahoma Indians.

Incidentally, new light was let in on the fabulously fat pickings there are for lawyers and claim agents in prosecuting Indian claims before Congress and before the departments in Washington. For instance, one lawyer, R. C. Adams, himself an Indian of the Delaware tribe, admitted that he had bunches of contracts with the Indians to push claims against the government for $30,000,000, on which his fees, contingent and otherwise, would range from 15 to 35 per cent—running up in the event of success to a grand aggregate of from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000.

It was through the efforts of this lawyer that a letter was procured from President Taft indorsing some of the schemes of the Indian claim agents, said letter being used to persuade the newly-enfranchised Oklahoma Indians to vote the Republican ticket this fall.

The Keetowa Society is an organization of Oklahoma Indians said to number 10,000 members. Its secretary is one Levi B. Gritts, and with the latter the move to bring President Taft into the claim agents' game apparently originated, as indicated by testimony adduced before the special House investigating committee today. Last spring Gritts wrote a letter to R. C. Adams in part as follows:

"If you can get assurances that the administration will assist us in this and will use its influence to prevent the reopening of the Indian rolls, which would be a great calamity to the Indian people, I feel certain that we can cast from the Indian vote a goodly majority for the Republican party at the coming election. So many of our people have been told that the present administration is indifferent to us and our interests, and the actions of the Interior Department go so far to prove this, that it is difficult for us to explain otherwise. Unless we can get assurances that the administration will use its influence to obtain for us legislation to settle up our claims against the government, and also to prevent the reopening of the Indian rolls, it is going to be difficult for us to show good results for the Republican party in the coming election."

Armed with the Gritts letter, Adams admitted that he went to the White House last April and laid the matter before President Taft. The latter did not become indignant, apparently, at being asked to write such a letter as suggested by the Gritts communication for the purpose of influcening the Indian vote in Oklahoma. He appears to have written the letter promptly, and in it occurs this all important sentence: "Of course I am in favor of facilitating hearing of these claims, and as to the second I am opposed to the reopening of the Indian citizenship roll."

When the news that the President had written this letter was spread broadcast among the Oklahoma Indians by the claim agents and Republican politicians, telegrams began to pour in on Attorney Adams from the Indians thanking him for his great service to them. Mr. Adams submitted a bunch of these telegrams to the investigating committee.

INSPECT FLUES AND STOVE PIPES

And Thus Prevent Many Fire Losses.

So Recommends Insurance Commissioner Young—Says Many Fires Are Preventable—Mail Cases In Federal Court—Reward For Capture of Haywood County Man—Six Pardons Granted by Gov. Kitchin.

Raleigh, Nov. 26.—State Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young says that there are coming in at this time reports of an unusually large number of fires in all parts of the state and that he believes that much of this is due to defective flues and stove pipes. He contends that preventable fires are inexcusable and believes that most of the fires now occurring throughout the state could be prevented by the proper inspection of the flues and stove pipes, now that the regular run of winter fires is on. He asks that every citizen employ some competent person at once to examine his flues and fire connections or else do it themselves. He believes that such a course at this time will save fire losses to the owners and occupants of buildings, to their neighbors and the state and the cities in which they live.

The session of the Federal court today was taken up with the trial of a number of minor cases without any sentences being pronounced against any of those convicted. When the court took a recess to Monday the case of Robert King, colored, for sending a slanderous letter through the mails was on trial, all the evidence being in. Eddie Royster was convicted on sending a scurrilous letter through the mails and Harris Johnson and Wright Johnson was convicted of destroying a rural mail box.

The judge has not yet passed sentence on Thomas B. Johns, the young Wake county man who has entered the plea of guilty to the charge of using the mails to defraud and intimidate his aunt, Mrs. Hattie Johns, of West Raleigh.

For the apprehension of Alden Burchfield, wanted in Haywood county for the murder of Larkin Cagle October 10 Governor Kitchin announces a reward of $150. Birchfield is a white man 23 years old weighing 120 pounds and having a paralyzed left arm.

Twenty-six Sunday school teachers received diplomas last night at the close of Sunday School Teacher's Training School in progress the past week at the First Baptist church for the benefit of the teachers in all the Baptist Sunday Schools of the city. The diplomas confer the degree of "K. T." or "King's Teacher" on the holders. The training school has been highly successful with an average attendance of 180 for all the sessions of the week.

Commissioner W. A. Graham and others of the state department of agriculture who attended the annual session of the association of the Commissioners of Agriculture and Agricultural Workers in session the past week in Atlanta declare that after a survey of the reports from all the Southern states presented there every one admitted that the North Carolina Department of Agriculture made by odds the best showing for progressive, efficient work in the furtherance of the farming interests. State Chemist B. W. Kilgore and Director of Farmer's Institutes T. B. Parker were the other North Carolina representatives. Dr. Kilgore is the secretary-treasurer of the association.

Six pardons just granted by Governor Kitchin on recommendation of court officers, citizens and others and on account of previous good character, exemplary deportment as prisoners or because of failing health are to George Gay, Wilson county, after serving ten years of a thirty year sentence for manslaughter; Nelson Stamey, Rutherford county, let off with three years of a five years sentence for manslaughter; James Branch, McDowell county, serving nine years for highway robbery, having been a youth under the influence of a bad man; C. W. Nash, Anson county, serving six months for trespass; Tom Thacker, Rockingham county, serving eighteen months for selling whiskey; R. H. Pinkerton, Cherokee, serving eighteen months for assault with deadly weapon on his brother-in-law.

PRIZE WINNERS AT EXHIBITION

Judges Made Awards Yesterday Afternoon.

Confessed That the Judging of the Different Exhibits Was No Easy Task—The Boys Jubilant For Those Who Did Not Receive Prizes Were Warmly Commended For Their Efforts—Only a Forerunner of Bigger and Better Exhibits.

With the awarding of the prizes to the successful exhibitors the Boys' Exhibition at the library came to a close yesterday afternoon. This event, which was arranged by Mr. E. P. Wharton and Prof. W. C. A. Hammell, was conceded by all to be the most interesting as well as instructive of any exhibition of like nature ever given in Greensboro. The boys who entered exhibits are deserving of much credit for the pains taken in collecting and arranging their exhibits.

While only eleven prizes were awarded, the judges in making the awards complimented most highly those who had failed to take a prize and assured each one that his exhibit, or collection, was of high merit and if the same care, together with added experience, was taken next time they would no doubt win the coveted honor. All of the exhibits, or collection, the judges stated, were much finer than either of them had expected and the work of awarding the prizes was no easy task. The boys who exhibited electrical apparatus were most highly complimented, one of the judges, an electrical expert, stating that he had not believed it possible for boys to make such perfect apparatus out of odds and ends.

The promoters state that this exhibition is only a forerunner of larger and better exhibitions; that this will only serve as a stimulus to other boys to collect relics, etc., and make electrical apparatus. They believe that when the second exhibition is pulled off the lecture room of the library will not begin to hold the different exhibits that will be entered by the boys. The boys who took part in this exhibition have already expressed their determination to have larger and better exhibits next time and those who are experimenting with electricity hope to be able to spring something entirely new upon the people of the city. Several are planning certain apparatus and hope to make a success of their inventions.

The encouragement given the boys by the presence of so many people during the two days the exhibition was open cannot be estimated but will be evidenced in the increased interest taken by the youthful exhibitors. A large number of people visited the room yesterday and all had a word of encouragement and praise for the boys. The Indian was present yesterday afternoon to explain the Indian relics and was viewed by the smaller children with as much curiosity as the curios themselves.

The judges who awarded the prizes were Judge N. L. Eure, Alderman J. Ed Albright, Mr. C. H. Andrews, of the Public Service Company, and Prof. Robt. Merritt. The eleven prizes were awarded as follows, all being books with the exception of the first prize:

Best sending and receiving station (wireless)—Robin Tilden, an electric meter. Second best sending and receiving station (wireless)—Adger Forney, book on electricity.

Best general electric exhibit other than wireless apparatus—Samuel and Hyman Mendelsohn—Book on electricity.

Indian exhibits—Percy White—Boy's Catlin (book on Indians.)

Stamp collection—Donnell Van Noppen—Boy Traveler's Trip Around the World.

Coin collection—Robt. Harris—Coins and How to Know Them.

Nature study, (eggs, etc.)—D. and H. Litaker—Bird Neighbors.

General exhibit—Glenn Wyrick—Boy Scouts.

Best piece of handwork (not including electrical apparatus)—Hugh Armfield—Boy's Airships.

Best handwork in drawing and modeling—Wakefield Mowery—Harper's Machinery For Boys.

Best manual work—Paul Stiles—How They Were Done?

The Telegram is requested to state that Mrs. W. H. Osborn loaned several Indian blankets and moccasins to be shown in connection with the Indian exhibits.

REPUBLICANS FEAR AN EXTRA SESSION

Will Try At All Costs to Jam Money Bills Through While They Hold the Reins.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—"Hustle through the appropriation bills," is to be the slogan of the Republican organizations in House and Senate at the coming session. The aim of their hurry-up program is not to give time for consideration and passage of general legislation which the President is expected to recommend in his annual message. It is merely to make sure that the Democrats do not get the chance of forcing a call for an extra session of the new Congress in the spring, through the failure of some of the necessary supply bills on which the orderly conduct of the government depends.

There are many reasons for the extreme anxiety of the o rganization Republicans to avert all possible danger of an extra session of the new Congress. The most practical and pressing at the House end is that the small army of hangers-on of the leading Republican members who now hold office under the Speaker, the clerk, doorkeeper, sergeant-at-arms, etc., could be dropped from the payrolls and replaced by Democrats as soon as an extra session met, whereas if the new Congress does not assemble until next December these Republicans will hold their jobs for eight or nine months longer.

Aside from this, the leading standpatters want to postpone as long as possible the reopening of tariff revision and to allow the Democrats a minimum of time in which to prosecute the many investigations which it is believed they will undertake into departmental methods.

If an extra session were called in the spring and the Democrats proceeded vigorously an dexpeditiously with revision of the tariff, the work could be done by the end of July and the new bill could be in operation about a year before the Presidential and Congressional campaign of 1912 fairly opened. The country would have had time to judge intelligently of the operations of the new law, and there would be far less danger of Democratic defeat because the people did not understand it and business had not had a chance to adjust itself to its provisions.

What the Republicans want is that the Democratic tariff revision shall not be completed until well along in the spring of 1912, and that the party shall then be compelled to face the country in the new campaign before the merits or demerits of its work can be intelligently judged.

It is the plan of the House organization to have one of the regular appropriation bilsl ready for consideration almost as soon as the session opens December 5. The bill selected is the Indian bill, and for the purpose of getting it ready the Indian Affairs Committee will begin work on it Monday next. The other bills will be hustled out of committee in rapid succession and rushed through just as quickly as the modified rules will permit.

SQUIRE WOLFE PASSES AWAY

Dies at Ripe Age of Eighty-One Years.

Noted Citizen of City For Forty Years—U. S. Commissioner For More Than Ten Years—Justice of Peace For Thirty Years—Survived by Five Children—Funeral From Home of R. M. Rees This Afternoon—Interment At Green Hill.

Mr. J. M. Wolfe, better known to the citizens of Greensboro as "Squire" Wolfe, passed away yesterday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. M. Rees, on Price street, at the ripe age of 81 years 4 months and 21 days. He had been unwell for two years past, and had been confined to his room for nine months. No specific disease is named as the cause of his death, which resulted largely from the infirmities of age.

'Squire Wolfe was born in Randolph county, but had been a resident of Greensboro for forty years, having come here when the city was but an obscure village. Up to comparatively recent years he knew almost every man in the city, and was a prominent figure in its political and civic life from the time he located here as a citizen, having served for ten years as United States Commissioner and thirty years as Justice of the Peace. He was noted far and wide for his ripe wisdom and droll humor and for the justice and finality of his decisions in passing upon the cases of offenders against the law.

He was one of the oldest charter members of Greensboro Lodge, No. 76, of Masons, a man who was ever true to his friends, and one who took an unselfish interest in the affairs of young men who were brought under his influence and in contact with his personality no one of them coming to him for counsel and going away without some helpful and wise word of encouragement.

He was in the Confederate army as a member of the Orange Guards, from Hillsboro.

At Hillsboro he met and married Miss Mary I Brown, who died four years ago, since which time 'Squire Wolfe has been living with his son-in-law, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Rees. He is survived by five children, as follows: Mrs. R. M. Rees, Mrs. W. H. Rees, Mrs. O. F. Pearce, William H. Wolfe and John L. Wolfe all of Greensboro.

The funeral service will be held from the residence at 131 Price street this afternoon at four o'clock conducted by Rev E. K. McLarty, pastor of the West Market Street Methodist church. Following are the names of those chosen to act as pall-bearers: J. E. Boyd, R. F. Dalton, G. H. McKinney, W. T. Sergeant, J. M. Millikan, C. G. Wright. Interment will be made at Green Hill cemetery.

NO SONG TO FATHER

Preacher Offers Prize For One To Be Sung In Church.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The Rev. Dr. William E. Barton, pastor of the First Congregational Church, is offering a prize for the words of a hymn that will extol the virtues of "Father." He says if he can find such a hymn his church organist has promised to set it to music, and that he will have it sung in his church at regular intervals. He said:

"Our religious hymnals are filled with songs to mothers and there are a few military hymns such as 'Onward, Christian Soldier' and a few for those 'In Peril on the Sea,' but none for the fathers who have a living to earn and a family to support.

"It is the fathers—the 'old man' you might say—who are doing their duty faithfully and making a living for the family.

"To my mind the beauties of fatherhood are second only to those of motherhood. A man resists twice as much temptation as a woman, and when he is a Christian he is one all through.

"I want this song of fatherland to be full of dramatic vigor and Christian sentiment. The music must not be too ladylike, either, but must be full of vigor and fire."

MOTHER EXHUMES CHILD.

Bristol, Pa., Nov. 25.—Mrs. Spencer Rending, mother of a 12-year-old girl who was buried a week ago, went to St. Mark's Cemetery, dug up the casket and removed the body from it.

She had taken the child's body in her arms and was hugging and kissing it when discovered. The body was reinterred and the mother was taken home.

Cruel Truth.

"There goes a man I might have married."

"Yes; and you observe he keeps moving."—New York Telegram.

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Howard Gardner.

Sillicus—"What is your idea of a popular woman?" Cynicus—"One you are not afraid of falling in love with."

Hexamethylenetetramine.

Is the name of a German chemical, one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and anti-septic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy promptly at the first sign of kidney trouble and avoid a serious malady. Howard Gardner.

The time is coming in England when the House of Lords will recognize the right of a common citizen to inherit something.

Americans should be especially thankfull at this season for their political institutions and the spirit of the people to await occasions. Even the suffragettes have refrained from maiming any of our aged congressmen or senators.

The death of 'Squire J. M. Wolfe is like the obliteration of a landmark. Greensboro without him will hardly be Greensboro, at least it will be a different sort of Greensboro. For he was a unique figure in its life. 'Squire Wolfe was a poet and a philosopher, though of recent years these characteristics were somewhat obscured as a result of his failing health. He was especially gifted as a raconteur and many have been the groups richly entertained by his stories and anecdotes of which he had a seemingly inexhaustible fund and which he told with a zest and an enthusiasm which were infectious. A kindly gentleman, especially conspicuous for his qualities of sociability and good fellowship, has passed off life's stage.

Memphis had hoped that she would be placed next to New Orleans in point of population, but census returns show that her increase of population has been only 28.1 per cent during the past decade, thus placing her even below Birmingham, which holds third place among the larger cities of the South. But Memphis cannot be kept back; she is too favorably located. Her railroad facilities are ample, and being situated at a point on the Mississippi whence at some day not far distant foreign products from all the chief ports of the world will be distributed to the principal points in the great middle west, she will have such advantages as will most certainly guarantee to her a wealth and consequent growth not enjoyed by inland cities and, so far as we can now see, by few, if any, of those immediately on the coast. But she must look well to two very important equations; namely, the health of her inhabitants and the enforcement of law.

THE CITY AND THE TARIFF.

A noted magazine editor avers that the great influx of countrymen into the city is due in a measure to the protective tariff. This may be true, but we spent an hour in trying to arrive at a solution of the problem based upon this hypothesis, and failed.

The movement is still cityward, but the reasons are not chargeable to the tariff. The farmer now reads his daily paper, he hears the market report over his telephone, and has opportunity to talk face to face with the man from town who pauses before the farm house to exchange a word of kindly greeting ere he speeds onward in quest of pleasure or to execute some commission pertaining to his business.

The farmer therefore knows that the tariff is responsible at least in part for one thing, namely, the great increase in the cost of living; and he knows that the burden falls heavily on the man who takes up residence in the city, because he is there forced to pay in actual cash for everything he uses, from the silverware on his table to the very water that he drinks. The farmer is exempt from much of this indirect taxation, while he has certainly suffered no diminution in the price of his products. He may without any greatly increased amount of labor, and by making at home much of what he would be forced to buy in town, enjoy a prosperity hitherto unknown to men of his calling.

A protective tariff would seem to have the effect of keeping folks from going to town to live rather than of influencing them to do so.

LITTLE RED SPOT.

If He Were Bigger This Spider Would Be a Real Peril.

Strangely enough, the one really dangerous spider on the American continent is small, obscure and practically unknown to popular or journalistic hysteria. Latrodectus mactans is its scientific name. It is about the size of a large pea, black with a red spot on the back—a useful danger signal—and spins a small web in outhouses or around wood piles. So far as is known, its poison is the most virulent and powerful, drop for drop, secreted by any living creature. Cobra virus, in the minute quantity which the latrodectus' glands contain, would probably have no appreciable effect upon man, whereas the tiny spider's venom, in the volume injected by the cobra's stroke, would slay a herd of elephants. Were this little known crawler as large as the common black hunting spider of our gardens and lawns its bite would be almost invariably fatal. Happily the "red spot's" fangs, being small and weak, can with difficulty penetrate the skin and are able to inject venom in dangerous quantity only when the bite is inflicted upon some tender skinned portion of the body. Nevertheless fatalities consequent upon the bite of this insect are sufficiently well attested to take rank as established scientific facts.—Samuel Hopkins Adams in Everybody's.

CHANGING THE SUBJECT.

What Lincoln Said After Harvey Ended a Two Hours' Talk.

The Hon. Peter Harvey, the friend and biographer of Daniel Webster, was a large man with a small voice and that pomposity of manner that many very diffident men possess. Above everything he valued and prided himself upon his friendship with the "great expounder."

The first year of the war between the states he went to Washington and on his return was asked how he liked President Lincoln.

"Well," he said, "Mr. Lincoln is a very singular man. I went on to see him and told him that I had been an intimate personal friend of Daniel Webster; that I had talked with him so much on the affairs of the country that I felt perfectly confident I could tell him exactly what Mr. Webster would advise in the present crisis, and thereupon I talked to Lincoln for two solid hours, telling him just what he should do and what he should not do, and, will you believe it, sir, when I got through all Mr. Lincoln said was, as he clapped his hand on my leg, 'Mr. Harvey, what a tremendous great calf you have got!'"

Proof of Fairness.

A frown developed on the countenance of the new patient as he studied the bill the physician had handed him. "What do you mean," he at length snorted, "by charging me $25 for a two weeks' treatment when you charged Handerson only $10 for a treatment extending over the same length of time?"

"If you mean that I am not impartial in my charges," retorted the bristling doctor, "I want you to distinctly understand that you have absolutely no foundation for your insinuation. I ordered Handerson to eat three square meals a day, while I forbade you to eat more than one light lunch. Now, sir, if you will add the cost of Handerson's meals to my charge of $10 and compare the result with the cost of your meals plus my charge of $25 you will obtain such proof of my equitableness that you, if you are a man, will humbly apologize to me for your unkind and unwarranted attack."—Chicago News.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh,, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

PERSISTENT BEGGARS.

The More Egyptian Mendicants Get the More They Demand.

In Egypt one should never give baksheesh except for actual services rendered. Resist calmly but firmly every attempt at extortion. Never pay till the stipulated service is finished; then, after you have paid a little more than the bargain called for, turn a deaf ear to the protestations and entreaties that always follow. Bear in mind that the more baksheesh you give the more clamorous becomes the applicant. Real thanks and gratitude must not be expected for gifts.

A friend of mine once broke one of these rules just to see what would happen. As we passed through a little mud village twenty miles from Cairo he gave a sturdy beggar a millieme (half a cent). This beggar, accompanied by others, followed us to the edge of the village, asking for more. My friend then gave him a piaster (5 cents).

They followed us a hundred yards or so and were more persistent than before. When they showed a disposition to go back he gave them 5 piasters. They followed us half a mile and became very clamorous. I was afraid we should get into trouble and wanted him to stop it, but when they began to lag he gave them 20 piasters.

They followed us two miles, and the experiment might have ended seriously had we not met a company of travelers with a dragoman, who sent the beggars about their business. This may help you to understand Egyptian character.—Christian Herald.

LAPLAND BABIES.

For Their First Few Months They Live In Wicker Baskets.

Little Laplanders spend the first few months of their existence in baskets of wickerwork provided at the top with a conical framework too close for the baby to fall through and yet giving the infant plenty of light and air.

Before commencing her work for the day the Lapp mother places her child in the basket and hangs it on the limb of some nearby tree, occupation being found for the little one by stringing toys under a cord passed across the top of the basket.

Thus provided the child spends the entire day in the open and yet at the same time is guarded from the troubles and dangers of outdoor child life in other countries.

The basket idea curiously parallels the Indian idea of strapping the papoose into a carrying case, but the Lapp baby has the advantage over its Indian fellow in that its limbs are unconfined and a certain amount of liberty of movement is afforded.

The child is carried from place to place in the same basket, the cord by which it is attached to a tree being slung over the shoulder.

"Everyone to his trade," says the Philosopher. "A hen can't expect to lay a corner-stone any more than a stonemason can expect to lay an egg."

STOLE WATCH AND AFTERWARDS RETURNED IT

Negro Boy Takes Timepiece From Residence of Mr. Isham King, But Close Questioning Causes Him To Send It Home.

When Joe Burton carried a suit of clothes that had been pressed to the residence of Mr. Isham King, West Gaston street, yesterday morning he was told to take the clothes upstairs and lay them in a certain room. Instead he carried them into a room occupied by Mrs. King's sister. A handsome gold watch was lying on the table in the room, but it decided to elope with the negro boy.

Some hours later the watch was missed and as the negro was the only one that had been in the room suspicion at once rested on him. Mr. King went to the place where he was employed and questioned him rather closely. Joe declared that he "never teched the watch." Chief Neelley was notified and he went down to take the negro into custody. However, he was out on a trip and remained away much longer than was necessary. He was carried to the lockup on his return. Meantime some negro boy, who refused to tell his name, had called at the residence and returned the watch. It appears that Joe had become frightened and decided to have the watch returned before he was arrested. Accordingly he got another negro to take the timepiece home. However, the officers have strong evidence against the negro and he will be given a hearing on the charge of larceny Monday morning.

Four Months on Roads.

In Municipal court yesterday morning Fletcher Farrington, colored, was given a hearing on the charge of stealing a pistol. He was found guilty and sentenced to four months on the roads. Some time ago Farrington was found guilty of stealing a bicycle and was bound over to court in this case. He will go on to the roads and return here for court.

RANSOM NAME OF THE NEW COUNTY

Provided Citizens Within Proposed Borders Get Together and the Legislature Enacts Necessary Measure—Enthusiastic Mass Meeting In High Point Yesterday—Committee on Organization.

At a mass meeting of people from all sections of the proposed new county, composed of portions of Guilford, Davidson and Randolph, held in High Point yesterday it was unanimously voted to name the county Ransom should it be set apart by the legislature as proposed. The mass meeting was well attended, there being representatives from Jamestown township, Thomasville, Trinity, New Market and High Point.

Mr. F. S. Lambeth, of Thomasville, was made chairman of the meeting and Mr. O. E. Mendenhall secretary. A committee of five was appointed to recommend permanent organization and this committee recommended that 45 men be named as an executive committee. The number was increased to 50 men and the movement was declared launched.

A number of speeches were made by Elwood Cox, A. E. Tate, Wescott Roberson, W. P. Ragan, A. H. Ragan, of Thomasville, W. O. Burgaw, Thomasville, Chairman Lambeth, Dr. Frazier, Trinity, and Mr. Smith, of New Garden. The Thomasville representatives stated they were willing to have a new county, provided High Point would build the court house, jail and county home and assume all the indebtedness that would be brought over from Guilford. Otherwise they would not get into the game. High Point did not like this, but would do her part—about 66 per cent. It was pointed out that the new county would be self-supporting, the assessed valuation being about $6,600,000. The taxes of High Point township alone are $24,000, exclusive of State and it was thought the entire salaries would not exceed $7,000 annually.

It was stated that the northern hunters having property there were willing to make donations to the new county. Mr. Elwood Cox stated that Senator Boyden, of Rowan, had promised his support in the State Senate. The High Point delegation was enthusiastic over the prospects. Some changes were made in the boundary lines.

BEFORE JUSTICE COLLINS.

Two Highly Interesting Cases Disposed of Yesterday Afternoon.

There were two highly interesting cases before Justice of the Peace Collins yesterday afternoon. The court room was well filled with spectators during the entire proceedings.

Sam Garrett, Ralph Burton, Arthur Burton and John Bradshaw, colored, were given a hearing on the charge of trespassing on the land of Mr. W. W. Gates. They were acquitted. Garrett and Mr. Gates were tried on the charge of assault with deadly weapons, being held for court in bonds of $25 each. Gates was taxed with the costs in the trespass case.

This case grew out of the difficulty between Gates and the negroes on last Thursday which resulted in Gates pulling his gun and firing at the negroes and Garrett throwing a rock at Gates. Gates claimed that the negro threw first, while the negroes all stated that Gates fired before the rock was thrown.

Harry Haithcock, John Garner and Frank Clouds, of Revolution, were held for court on the charge of breaking into the house of John Britt and stealing a quantity of malt. They gave bonds in the sum of $25 each for their appearance in court. A large number of witnesses were examined.

Holy Trinity Parish.

The congregation of Holy Trinity Parish will in the near future erect a handsome house of worship on the Hill property on West Market street. The parish owns a lot on West Sycamore street, but the above mentioned lot is much more desirable and the property will be purchased in a few days, the officers of the parish holding an option on the property. The other property will be sold. The property of St. Barnabas and St. Andrew's churches will be sold as soon as the new building is completed if not before.

NEW PASTOR AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. Leon Edgar Smith Fills the Pulpit of His New Charge Today.

Rev. Leon Edgar Smith, recently called to serve the Walker Avenue Christian church as pastor, will fill the pulpit of his new charge today, and will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. It is expected that the new pastor will be greeted by large congregations, and a most cordial invitation is extended by the church to the people of the city to worship with the Christian congregation today.

Rev. Mr. Smith was born near La Grange, Ga., and attended Elon College, from which he was graduated with the class of 1910. He has been a minister of the gospel for several years, and during the time he was in Elon College had one or more charges. Recently he has been pastor of the Christian church at Graham, which place he resigned to accept the call to Greensboro.

The new pastor of the Walker Avenue church is still young in years, but he has had much experience in church and pastoral work, and the congregation considers itself quite fortunate in having him as its pastor. He is a forceful preacher, and at the same time a fervent and devoted Christian worker.

LA FOLLETTE A POWER

Looms Up As the Most Interesting Figure In the Senate.

Washington, Nov. 26.—That Robert M. La Follette, beginning with the coming session of Congress, will become the most conspicuous figure in the Senate regardless of party is the deliberate judgment of men of clear political vision.

These expect the Wisconsin Senator to attain national prominence as a Senatorial power, coupling with this an ability to command the attention of his colleagues and the country, in which respect he failed in the first few years of his service. It is unlikely that he will be the officially designated or recognized leader of any element of his party, but forcible reasons are advanced as to why he will be the popular hero of the Senate with a vastly increased political influence extending farther outside that chamber than that of any other man in it. Backed by a popular indorsement from the people of his state such as came to no other Senator, old or new, in that body, the La Follette fighting force will be greatly enhanced, and the La Follette policies and measures will possess a strength they lacked before. Friends of this militant pioneer of the Insurgent movement are saying: "Kep your eyes on LaFollette from now on." And it seems well worth doing.

Six years ago, when he first came to the Senate he stood for exactly what he stands for now, but he stood alone in the chamber. There were no Insurgents then, the Aldrich grip was unshaken, and the futility of "bucking" the organization was such as to smother any signs of Independence upon the part of Senators with independent inclinations and a desire to rebel against the "humbuggery" that dominated their party and the subserviency with which it legislated for the "special interests." These were the days when La Follette did his fighting by himself. He was scoffed at, sneered at and openly insulted. He was looked upon by many as a pompadoured anarchist, a demagogue of the worst type, a menace to the welfare of the people and the prosperity of the country. His denunciations of the trusts, the tariff and the railroads aroused only open contempt. But he fought along with a far clearer idea of the real trouble with this country than his colleagues, and the proof of this is that the country has, to an amazing extent, swung around to the La Follette viewpoint. There has arisen a group of Republican Senators who, while not yet ready to go to the extent La Follette goes, still reflect and stand for many La Follette ideas and have aided in the creation of a nation-wide movement that has changed the political map.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

We have occupied our present store ever since we opened business in Greensboro, and not until the last few days was it possible for us to secure a long time lease on the building so that we could expand.

Now that we have secured the store, we feel that we can go ahead and make the necessary changes at once in order to meet the requirements of our large and growing business.

We have the utmost confidence in Greensboro's growth and we are going to make our store the most complete music store to be found in any city.

As soon as we can make room, we are going to put in a complete line of sheet music and small musical merchandise; in fact, we are going to carry everything from a "Jews Harp" to a piano.

This has been a growing demand on us for some time and we feel that Greensboro should have such a store. We propose to carry everything in stock to assist the music teachers and the musical people in general.

Now to begin with, we are going to clean house by offering our entire stock of fine pianos and organs at prices that will insure quick removal.

This must be done first, as the front of our store is going to be torn away at once and changed in many ways to make room for the department.

We have a very large stock of pianos and organs and right on top of all this, here comes a solid car of fine sample pianos, which will pack our warerooms full on every floor.

We secured these pianos from the factory exhibit at Reidsville, and they must be sold.

These are all the highest grade pianos, right from the factory and were on exhibition for a short time at Reidsville, and having secured them at a considerable reduction, we are in position to give quick buyers the benefit of the lowest prices ever known on high class pianos.

We decided the best way to clean house is to offer this stock of fine pianos at prices and terms that will insure their quick removal to the homes of customers.

IMPERIAL SPLENDOR.

The New British King Proposes to Have all That's Coming to Him.

Detroit News.

Visions of empire have seized the new British King, who, not content with being crowned only at Westminster like his predecessors since Henry VII retired discomfited in the fifteenth century from France, where the English kings had claimed sovereignty, proposes to be crowned Emperor of India at Delhi, that ancient capital of India princes. King George will be crowned at Delhi in 1912, and there Queen Mary, the ambitious one, will be hailed Empress of India with Imperial circumstances and pomp.

So far, then, from witnessing the ascendency of democracy in Great Britain, we observe the growth of imperialism. No longer is King George to be content with empty titles of empire, attainable by mere kings, but he will be crowned king of kings, like the shahs and caliphs, khans and maharajahs, and all the splendid potentates of the Orient. William, Victoria, Edward, these never thought to journey by the high seas to their far-flung dominions. An innovation, then we are promised and one that may appease the hunger of the crawling millions of India by the very splendor of the coronation.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50 c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

A Distinct Triumph.

"Your daughter looked very beautiful at the opera last night," said Mrs. Oldcastle. "I heard several people say they thought she was the best-dressed person in any of the boxes."

"Yes," replied her hostess as she hung her $20,000 dog collar over the back of a real Chippendale chair, "both me and Josiah could see that she was the sinecure of all eyes."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Prompt Punishment of a Liar.

Years ago the courthouse in San Francisco fronted the old Plaza. A trial was in progress, and counsel for the defendant was cross examining the plaintiff. An earthquake shook the chandeliers and dislodged some of the ceiling. Judge, jurors, witnesses and spectators rushed for the door; but, finding that the seismic disturbance was over, they returned.

"You can proceed with the cross examination of the witness," said the judge.

"Pardon me, your honor," said counsel for the defendant, "but after the late exhibition of the displeasure of the Almighty at the lies this witness was telling I do not care to further invoke divine wrath. I will ask him no more questions."—Los Angeles Times.

Horses in the Time of Homer.

The horses used in Homer's time were war horses. The warriors were drawn in chariots. The art of riding was known, but it is alluded to as something unusual. Ulysses at the time of his shipwreck "bestrode a plank, like a horseman on a big steed." There are reasons for believing that the practice of riding was much later than that of driving, and the myth of the centaur, where, according to Shakespeare, "man is incorpsed and demin-atured with the beast," probably originated at an early period when the appearance of a man on horseback was a novel sight.

A Long Wait.

At a Denver hotel a woman went into one of the telephone booths and sat down. It is not possible to get a telephone number from the booth—the girl at the board has to call it. The girl went to the booth. "Did you want a telephone number?" she asked of the woman.

"No," replied the woman. "I'm just waiting for this elevator to go up."—Argonaut.

Very Considerate.

George—Do you see that pretty girl in the hammock? Harold—Yes. What of her? George—I saved her life last summer. Harold—Indeed! At the seashore? George—No; on the front porch. I proposed to her and she said she'd die if she married me, so I excused her.—Stray Stories.

Bogey.

Stranger—I say, my lad, what is considered a good score on these links? Caddie—Well, sir, most of the gents here tries to do it in as few strokes as they can, but it generally takes a few more.—Scottish American.

Principal, The Madam Butler School of Beautifying Arts, Detroit, Michigan.

The curls or puffs are allowed to drop across the back. This arrangement is without the use of rats, frames or false hair.

To Have Beauliful Hair Use

Newbro's Herpicide

No woman can afford to be indifferent to the appearance of her hair. A mass of nice snappy hair, becomingly dressed will add more in genuine looks than a pretty face, or an expensive gown. Don't allow the scalp to become clogged with dirt and dandruff. Don't let the Dandruff Germ destroy your hair. If your hair is uneven, dead, dull and brittle and comes out by the handful every time you draw a comb through it, the germ is there. To kill the germ and check the loss of hair should be your first anxiety. Newbro's Herpicide will do this and at the same time put the hair and scalp in a sanitary condition. Herpicide appeals to those of greatest refinement on account of its exquisite odor, its purity and cleanliness. It contains no grease and does not stain or dye. There is nothing more dependable than this remarkable scalp prophylactic. The hair responds readily to a regular and intelligent use of Newbro's Herpicide. Try it and see.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, innocculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM

It is An Internal Disease And Requires An Internal Remedy.

The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. RUBBING with Oils and Liniments WILL NOT CURE, affords only temporary relief at best, causes you to delay the proper treatment, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure Rheumatism than paint will change the fiber of rotten wood.

Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. Rheumacide strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause. This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c. and $1 a bottle. In Tablet form at 25c. and 50c. a package. Write to Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md. Booklet free. Tablets sent by mail.

REINDEER IN LAPLAND.

They Furnish the People With Shelter, Clothing and Food.

Some people have said that the reindeer of the northern regions is to the inhabitants of those countries what the horse, cow and sheep together are to the dwellers in southern lands, and very probably they are right. What would the Laplander be were he deprived of his favorite? How could he travel without his pair of reindeer harnessed to his sledge?

The reindeer has large black hoofs, behind which are false or secondary hoofs; the result is that when running they make a clattering sound, which may be heard a good distance away. The reindeer has much endurance and takes a long journey without seeming tired, though it is only about four and a half feet in height and not very strong. Its horns are long and slender, with branched, rounded antlers, but they are not much used in combat, like those of some other deer.

The largest reindeer are found where the weather is coldest, and their color is lighter. Usually it is brown and white, but in the case of old animals the hair is sometimes quite white. From the skin of the reindeer the Laplanders get not only their clothes, but also bedding and tents; the milk is drunk and made into cheese and the flesh is also good to eat, the tongue and haunches being particularly liked. Pemmican, an important article of food, is made by pouring fat over the pounded meat and mixing them well together.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It is really wonderful how quickly Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve breaks up a cold, croup or pneumonia symptoms. Just rub it on. Keep a jar ready.

Just because a man has never had any advantages of his own is no reason why he should take advantage of other people.

WORSE THAN WAR.

Infernal Regions of the Buddhists and Mohammedans.

The infernal regions of Buddhism are horrible. They comprise a great hell and 136 lesser hells. In these hells, according to the sculptures of the Buddhist temples, men are ground to powder and their dust turned into ants and fleas and spiders. They are pestled in a mortar. The hungry eat redhot iron balls. The thirsty drink molten iron.

Islamism says of the infernal regions: "They who believe not shall have garments of fire fitted for them. Boiling water shall be poured on their heads and on their skins, and they shall be beaten with maces of iron."

In the Scandinavian mythology, the mythology of Odin and Thor, we are told that "in Nastrond there is a vast and direful structure, with doors that face the north. It is formed entirely of the backs of serpents, wattled together like wickerwork. But the serpents' heads are turned toward the inside of the hall, and they continually send forth floods of venom, in which wade all those who commit murder or forswear themselves."

Make Up Your "List"

Christmas is drawing very near. No use waiting until the eleventh hour. Make up your list today. Jot down the names of all to whom you intend to make presents. That done, mark down what you desire to give them.

Then select every day one or two presents. A small deposit will secure them for you. They will be laid aside until the day before Christmas.

A look at the show windows and the store proper will aid in making selections. Come whenever you like, and as often as you please. We will be very glad to show you around. You will never be urged to buy.

You will probably give at least one watch. By buying it here you will save enough so that for the difference you can secure a very good chain to attach to it.

There will surely be some one to whom you will want to give a ring, to others bracelets, lockets and scarf pins, brooches and studs. For still others you will want little trinkets in silver novelties.

FASTEST TRAIN IN COUNTRY

New Schedule Gives 96-Minute Run From Philadelphia To Jersey.

New York, Nov. 26.—Not to be outdone by their rivals, which would otherwise be the case when the new Pennsylvania Station opens next Sunday, the Central Railway of New Jersey will cut its running time an even 10 minutes. In other words, the shortening of the Pennsylvania time through the use of the Hudson tunnels is to be met by the inauguration of the fastest train schedule ever attempted in this country.

After this week they will make the run of 90 miles between Philadelphia and Jersey in 96 minutes flat, or at a speed of 65 1-4 miles an hour for the entire distance. Operating officials of the Jersey Central explained that in fact the actual running time would be 12 minutes less than this, that allowance being made for stops and slowdowns, the latter notably over the Newark Bay drawbridge, which all engineers are forbidden to cross in less than four minutes. This brings the average speed to 64.285 miles an hour.

CRUTCHFIELD—BILLINGS.

She is a charming and accomplished young woman and during her stay here has made many friends. Mr. Crutchfield until recently was traveling salesman for the Vaughan-Crutchfield Drug Co., of Winston, having resigned that position to accept a position with the Brown-Belk Company here.

IT IS ALL RIGHT

to ask a friend to do you a favor when it is impossible to secure the favor in any other way. But why ask a friend to go on your bond as surety when the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company can give better security than an individual at no extra cost for its faithful discharge of its duty as a trustee or executor or administrator. Why should you sign a bond by which your "heirs, executors, administrators and assigns are held and firmly bound" to pay for the default of others; perhaps after your death, every dollar of your estate? Tell your friend not to burden you with such a grave responsibility. Let the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company become responsible.

Talk this over with us—it will assist you.
